Some of those Ghostlight Society members enjoying wines, canapés, and jazz were Rebecca and Tim Owens, Sarah and James Argyropoulos, Lisa and Stephen Cloud (Lobero Theatre Board), Sheila and Steve Cushman, Denise and David Asbell (executive director of the Lobero Theatre Foundation), Judy and Robert Egenolf, Patricia and Robert Jones, and Janet and John McCann.

And so the ghostlight was lit as we all left the theater!

Honoring New Members

The Women's Board held its annual luncheon to honor new members at the Santa Barbara Club. They were: Patricia Kohlen, Dee Jones,

SBMA new members Laurel Rose, Caroline Harrah, Dee Jones, Marjorie Robertson, Patricia Kohlen, and Julie Blair

SBMA past chairs Deanna Major, Doloras Manclark, Roxanna Anson, Mary Maxwell, and Gwen Baker

More past chairs: Lynn Brown, Cecia Hess, Karen Chin, and Kathy Weber

Marjorie Robertson, Laurel Rose, Julie Blair, and Caroline Harrah. In addition, they honored past chairs of their major fundraisers who included Doloras Manclark, Mavis Mayne, Mary Maxwell, Roxanna Anson, Cecia Hess, Deanna Major, Christina Frisina, Gwen Baker, Karen Chin, Kathy Weber, and Lynn Brown.

As board president Helene Segal said, "These hard-working chairs are the heart of the auxiliary." The fundraisers are "Mystery in Masterpieces" and "Off the Wall." Save the date – April 30 will be the Off the Wall event – a popular way to "buy" art.

Robert and Mercedes Eichholz director and CEO of the Santa Barbara Museum of Art (SBMA) Larry Feinberg addressed the group. "I especially like this event that gets everyone in this dynamic group together. This year is the 75th anniversary of the museum, which was founded in 1941. The Women's Board was founded in 1951 and has since supported all the major exhibitions."

Larry remembered that it was the board that created the café space and was amazed that they contributed to the renovation campaign when they had already done so much. He was also grateful they are completely self-sufficient, leaving the staff free for other duties.

Fran Morrow is vice president membership who organized the luncheon and introduced all the guests of honor. Others are vice president development Jeanne Fulkerson, vice president communications Melanie Brewer, vice president social activities Carolyn Williams, treasurer Nancy Werner, secretary Gayle Cummings, and parliamentarian Gwen Baker.

Keep up the good work, ladies. Our whole community benefits from your efforts.
